TEXAS CAPITAL BANK NAMED TOP PLACE TO WORK BY THE SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS-NEWS

DALLAS – Oct. 24, 2016 - Texas Capital Bank announced it has been named a Top Workplace by the San Antonio Express-News.

This is the second straight year the bank has been recognized by San Antonio’s daily newspaper, underscoring the effort and emphasis Texas Capital Bank puts on the workplace.

“Our bank is a great place to work,” said Texas Capital Bank President and CEO Keith Cargill. “But more than that, our environment is a strategic advantage, and has played no small part in our success helping businesses grow and communities prosper. I am committed, along with our entire leadership team, to making Texas Capital the best possible place for all our employees to work, learn and achieve.”

“We have created a workplace defined by teamwork, community involvement and fun,” said Shaun Kennedy, chairman of Texas Capital Bank’s San Antonio region. “Our employees not only care about each other, they carry an authentic can-do spirit with them in all aspects of their jobs.”

“The client wins every bit as much as the bank,” said David Pope, the bank’s San Antonio regional president: “The high employee satisfaction results in superior customer service, which in turn results in highly satisfied clients.”

The Express-News bases its rankings on employee survey data from an independent third party as well as scores across a combination of seven areas, which include connection and direction of company, pay and benefits, confidence in leadership and work-life balance.
