DALLAS, May 27, 2021 -- Texas Capital Bank, N.A., and its parent company Texas Capital Bancshares, Inc. (NASDAQ: TCBI), collectively referred to herein as “Texas Capital Bank,” today announced the following leadership appointments:

- Joe Valenzuela as Senior Manager, Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion (DEI), effective May 19, 2021;
- Don Goin as Chief Information Officer, effective May 27, 2021; and
- Madison Simm as President of Mortgage Finance, following the retirement of Jack Nunnery, effective August 2, 2021.

Texas Capital Bank is committed to addressing diversity, equity, and inclusion with all of its stakeholders, including within the Company and in its communities. As Vice President, Senior Manager, DEI, Mr. Valenzuela will work closely with the leadership team and the Company’s DEI Council, and he will engage the Company’s employees to accelerate its efforts to build a culture that embraces diverse voices and perspectives, and attracts world-class diverse talent. The Company’s goal is to drive meaningful change for the good of society, its clients, and the organization.

As Chief Information Officer, Mr. Goin will oversee the Company’s sizeable technology organization, its long-term technological strategies, and the innovative solutions it provides its clients. He will oversee the Company’s use of technology to execute its business strategy, drive agility, improve efficiency, and build an exceptional client digital experience.

Mr. Simm, currently Mortgage Finance Executive Vice President at Texas Capital Bank, will succeed Mr. Nunnery as President of Mortgage Finance upon retirement. In this role, Mr. Simm will be responsible for overseeing all business solutions delivered through the bank’s Mortgage industry vertical, including Warehouse Lending, Mortgage Specialty Lending, and Treasury and Liquidity.

“Today’s leadership appointments represent another important step as we continue to transform our business to better serve our clients, colleagues, and communities,” said Rob C. Holmes, President and CEO. “Diversity has been a key focus area for our bank, and we believe Joe will be extremely valuable in leading our efforts to drive diversity, equity, and inclusion, which in turn will strengthen our bank’s position. We also look forward to welcoming Don, who will be instrumental in helping us deliver enhanced service offerings and solutions to our clients by leveraging advanced technology.”

Mr. Holmes continued, “On behalf of the leadership team, I’d like to congratulate Madison on his promotion to President of Mortgage Finance. The division has performed very well over the past few years, and Madison has worked closely with Jack and has been a critical part of those efforts. We look forward to benefiting from his expertise in this new role as we propel our business forward to greater levels of growth. We also want to thank Jack for his innumerable contributions over the past 14 years and wish him all the best in his retirement.”
