

606 Request

Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 606 of Regulation NMS requires all broker-dealers to make publicly available a quarterly report of their order routing practices for non-directed orders. The Rule excludes from the quarterly report those orders that are directed by a customer to a particular exchange or market for execution.

TCBI Securities Inc., report is available by request via email to:

tcscompliance@texascapitalbank.com