Online Privacy Policy

Last Revised 4/2021
Effective 5/8/2021

At Texas Capital Bank, your online privacy is important to us. This Online Privacy Policy explains the collection, use, sharing, and protection of data and information that we gather from you when you use our website (“Site”) and the websites of partner institutions that directly link to this Policy. Our Online Privacy Policy covers the functions and services available through our Site and mobile application. By continuing to use our Site, you consent to the practices identified in this Policy.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT

Personal Information
When you visit our Site, we may collect Personal Information about you that you provide to us, including but not limited to:

- First, middle, and last name
- Home or other physical address
- Email address
- Username associated with your account
- Telephone number
- Location information
- Company name
- Job title
- Details about devices used to access our websites or mobile applications such as IP address, browser information, device information, and operating system information. This is discussed further below.
- We may also collect information about the use of websites, mobile applications, social media presence, and internet-enabled services and platforms by automated means, such as cookies, web beacons, HTML5 localStorage, and other technologies. This is discussed further below.

Cookies and Similar Technology
We collect other information when you visit our Site or use our mobile application, or interact with our advertisements, even if you are not using our services or do not provide this information directly to us. We may collect a variety of information types in a variety of ways, including:

- Cookies: Cookies are small pieces of data that are stored by your internet browser directly on the device you are using. Cookies help track technical and navigational information such as time you spend on the Site, your browser type, and the specific pages that you have visited.
- Flash objects (also “Local Shared Objects”): Flash objects determine browser type to ensure that you can view all of the content on our Site, and they help us recognize you and your device when you revisit our Site.
- Web beacons: Web beacons are objects that are embedded in a webpage and usually invisible to the user. They track who is visiting our Site.
- IP Address: An IP Address is automatically assigned to your device by your Internet Service Provider and is automatically recorded and logged when you visit our Site.
- HTML5 localStorage: HTML5 localStorage in the browser is different from cookies, but can be used for the same purpose (to pair a tracking ID to a particular web server with your web browser so that the web server can identify your web browser over time).
- Other use: Tracking technologies that we may use from time to time and as technology changes.
HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION
Collecting Personal Information and Other Online Information allows us to optimize the services we offer you. We use this information in a number of ways, including but not limited to:

- Processing applications and transactions
- Verifying your identity, including when you access your online account
- Responding to inquiries and communications from you
- Improving our business operations and developing new products and services
- Assessing and informing you about the services and products that might interest you
- Providing you important information about our Site
- Protecting the rights, property, or personal safety of Texas Capital Bank, its users, and/or the public
- Complying with legal requirements
- Other purposes we may specifically disclose at the time we collect information

HOW WE SHARE YOUR INFORMATION
We share information we collect from or about you in accordance with our Customer Privacy Notice. This Notice describes the information collected and your choices regarding the sharing of this information.

We disclose Personal Information and Other Online Information as required by law and to third-party affiliates and servicers in connection with the processing, administration, and servicing of your account. These affiliates are only authorized to use and disclose your information as needed to perform services on our behalf or to satisfy legal requirements. At times, we may also disclose your information to meet legal requirements, cooperate with law enforcement authorities, or as we deem appropriate to prevent physical harm or financial loss.

In the event that assets of Texas Capital Bank are acquired by, sold to, or merged with another third party, we reserve the right to transfer your information in connection with this transaction.

HOW WE PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION
We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards as required by law to protect the information we collect from you through our Site from unauthorized access, disclosure, manipulation, or destruction.

CHILDREN’S PRIVACY
Our site is not directed at individuals under the age of thirteen (13), and we do not knowingly solicit, collect, or use Personal Information from children under 13 without parental consent. Children under 13 are prohibited by this Online Privacy Policy from providing Personal Information through our Site. We do not sell the Personal Information of minors under 16 years of age.

KEEPING INFORMATION ACCurate
The accuracy of the information you provide to us is very important. Please log in to your account and update any account information you believe to be incorrect. If you cannot change or correct the information online, or you would rather make these changes offline, please use the Contact Us option on our website to call or write to us. Alternatively, you can use the contact information provided to you in your statements, records, or other account materials.

SOCIAL MEDIA
We utilize social media platforms such as Facebook and others to foster online sharing and collaboration among our customers. Note that any content you make available through those platforms (such as name, pictures, or opinions) are subject to the terms of use and privacy policies of those platforms, not this Policy. To better understand your rights and obligations, please review the policies of the specific website or platform you are using. Because we link to social media sites, and from time to time may include third-party advertisements, other parties may collect your personally identifiable information about your online activities over time and across different web sites when you visit this Site.

TRACKING

We collect data about your activities that does not personally or directly identify you when you visit our website, the website of entities for which we serve advertisements (our “Advertisers”), or the websites and online services where we display advertisements. This information may include the content you view, the date and time that you view this content, the products you purchase, or your location information associated with your IP address. We use the information we collect to serve you more relevant advertisements (referred to as “Remarketing”).

Additionally, we will track your use of our Site across multiple devices, monitoring your activity to personalize and improve your experience. All platform pixels, including those with our advertising networks, will be capturing anonymized user data including, without limitation: conversion activity, impression/click data, general media buy data, and unique identifiers, such as cookie IDs and Ad IDs (ad server only).

We also use Microsoft’s Universal Event Tracking (UET) feature which collects anonymized user data from advertising destination to provide Microsoft Advertising. Please review link for more information: https://privacy.microsoft.com/en-us/privacystatement

You can exercise your opt-out rights through the below resources:

- To opt out of Google’s use of cookies, you can visit Google’s Ads Settings: https://www.google.com/settings/ads/plugin
- To opt out of a third-party vendor’s use of cookies, visit the Network Advertising Initiative opt-out page (http://www.networkadvertising.org/choices/) or visit the Digital Advertising Alliance (DAA) opt-out page (http://optout.aboutads.info/?c=2&lang=EN)

Texas Capital Bank will not respond to web browser “do not track” signals.

Please note that not all tracking will stop even if you delete cookies.

CHANGES TO THE ONLINE PRIVACY POLICY

Our Online Privacy Policy is subject to change. We will inform you of these changes by posting the Policy to this page and revising the date listed at the top of the page. By continuing to use our Site following the posting, you consent to the modified Online Privacy Policy. Any changes will be effective only after the effective date of the change and will not affect any dispute arising prior to the effective date of the change.

ADDITIONAL RIGHTS

Applicable laws may give you additional rights that are not described in this Online Privacy Policy.

Your California Privacy Rights

If you are a California resident, California law may provide you with additional rights regarding our use of your Personal Information. To learn more about your California privacy rights, visit the CCPA Privacy Statement attached.

QUESTIONS

For any questions regarding this Policy, please call us at 1-877-839-2265 or email us at clientsupport@texascapitalbank.com.
PRIVACY STATEMENT – CALIFORNIA

This privacy statement for California residents supplements the information contained in the Online Privacy Policy and applies solely for visitors, users, and others who reside in the state of California (“consumers” or “you”). We adopt this notice to comply with the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (“CCPA”). Any terms defined in the CCPA have the meaning when used in this notice.
