

Community Reinvestment Grant Guidelines

Texas Capital Bank is committed to helping communities prosper through strategic investments in our communities that serve the needs of low-and-moderate income individuals, families and communities. To achieve the greatest impact, we direct our philanthropic efforts toward three focus areas:

Live

- Affordable housing
- Access to healthcare
- Convenient access to nutritious food
- Parks & green spaces

Learn

- Early childhood development
- STE(A)M
- Reading & financial literacy
- Afterschool programs
- College & career readiness
- Technical & career training
- Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

Lift

- Economic development
- Transitional & emergency services
- Disaster recovery
- Social justice

To be considered for a grant from Texas Capital Bank, organizations must provide proof of providing services to low-and-moderate income communities. Low-and-moderate income is defined as 80% or less of area median income.
