Texas Capital Ranked in Top 10 of U.S. Middle Market Bookrunner Loan Syndications for First Time

Ranking solidifies Texas Capital as a leader in commercial loan syndications

DALLAS – August 15, 2023 – Texas Capital Bancshares Inc, (NASDAQ: TCBI), the parent company of Texas Capital, today announced that Refinitiv LPC has ranked Texas Capital’s commercial loan syndication business in the top 10 of U.S. Middle Market Loan Syndication Bookrunners. The ranking, which marks the first time Texas Capital has been included in this list, highlights the firm’s leadership in the Middle Market space as a lead underwriter for loans up to $500 million.

“This recognition further cements Texas Capital as a leader in originating, organizing and distributing syndicated credit facilities among a strong group of financial institutions,” said Texas Capital Head of Corporate & Investment Banking Daniel Hoverman. “Consistent with our culture of client obsession, we remain focused on providing timely and accurate advice to help our clients execute meaningful transactions.”

Syndicated loans arranged by Texas Capital can be structured on a cash flow multiple, asset-covered or enterprise value basis across a multitude of sectors and leverage thresholds. Through a dedicated team of professionals and a network of strong relationships, Texas Capital offers access to a broad range of banks and institutional capital through tailored structures allowing clients to achieve their long-term objectives.
