Community Impact Grant Guidelines

Texas Capital Bank Foundation’s purpose is to remove the barriers that stand in the way of communities becoming healthy, resilient, and prosperous. The foundation is committed to helping communities thrive through strategic partnerships with nonprofit organizations providing direct services to those who need it most. To achieve the greatest impact, we direct our philanthropic efforts toward three focus areas:

Live
- Affordable housing
- Access to healthcare
- Convenient access to nutritious food
- Parks & green spaces

Learn
- Early childhood education
- STE(A)M
- Reading & financial literacy
- Afterschool programs
- College & career readiness
- Technical & career training
- Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

Lift
- Economic development
- Transitional & wraparound services
- Small business support
- Support services for veterans
- Disaster recovery
- Social justice

To be considered for a grant from Texas Capital Bank, organizations must provide proof of impacting services to low-and-moderate income communities. Low-and-moderate income is defined as 80% or less of area median income.

Eligibility Requirements
- Organizations must serve low-and-moderate income individuals, families or communities
- Programs must fall under Texas Capital Bank’s philanthropic focus areas: Live, Learn, and Lift
- Organization must have a current tax-exempt status under section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code
- Financial statements, board member list and org chart must be provided with grant application.

Not Eligible
- Individuals
- For-profit companies
- Public or private schools
- Municipalities
- Fraternal or networking-based organizations
- Places of worship
- Political Action Committees or other organizations whose main purpose is lobbying for public policy
- Organizations which promote controversial issues
- Ticketed events, including but not limited to luncheons, golf tournaments, galas, etc.
- Organizations that do not primarily address the needs of low-and-moderate income communities

Texas Capital Bank, N.A. is a wholly owned subsidiary of Texas Capital Bancshares, Inc. We are headquartered in Dallas, Texas, and work with clients across the country. All services are subject to applicable laws, regulations and service terms.